21 The above-captioned case is set for trial on September 23, 2013. A pretrial conference is 22 scheduled for September 18, 2013 at 2:00 p.m. The parties hereby submit this stipulation to set a 23 briefing schedule with respect to the parties' motions in limine and a filing date for the parties' joint 24 pretrial statement.

25 1. Pursuant to the Court's Guidelines for Final Pretrial Conference in Jury Cases, the parties
26 are to file pretrial motions in limine at least 10 days before the final pretrial conference. The Guidelines
27 provide that the parties are to file oppositions at least three days before the pretrial conference.

28 2. Because the parties anticipate that they will each be filing pretrial motions in limine, and

1 in order to provide the parties with additional time to respond, the parties have jointly agreed to set the
2 following briefing schedule for those motions in limine:

3 a. Motions in limine to be filed: September 6, 2013

4 b. Responses to motion in limine to be filed: September 13, 2013

5 3. The parties believe that the briefing schedule set forth above will aid the Court in 6 determining whether any evidentiary matters may be resolved before trial. It will also provide each
7 party with additional time to respond to the opposing party's motions.

8 4. The Court's Guidelines for Final Pretrial Conference in Jury Cases also provide that the 9 parties should lodge and serve a joint pretrial statement at least 10 days before the pretrial conference.
10 Because that day falls on a weekend, and in order to provide the parties with additional time to complete
11 the joint pretrial statement, the parties jointly request that the Court allow them to file the joint pretrial
12 statement on September 9, 2013.
